

Written by Administrator
Monday, 29 July 2019 14:12

On the 27 of July 2019 has been agreed a partnership between two international non-governmental organizations – the International Union of Young Farmers and the Union Corps Saint Lazarus International.

The Union Corps Saint Lazarus International since 2014 accredited in Special Consultative Status and since 2019 in General Consultative Status in with United Nations Economic and Social Council in New York, Geneva and Vienna and it is relevant for it to share its experience in the field of protection of human rights and freedoms. The Union Corps Saint Lazarus International 2017 nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize.

In Europe level, the European Social Charter and its Additional Protocols protect the human social and economic rights. Issues related to the International Union of Young Farmers and the Union Corps Saint Lazarus International acquisition of the consultative status with the Council of Europe were discussed.

In the photo: the Secretary of the International Union of Young Farmers Sergejus Ivanovas (centre) and the leaders of the Union Corps Saint Lazarus International